

CLACKAMAS DANCE AND PERFORMING ARTS CENTER

Code of Ethics

CDPAC Mission Statement:

To have our dancers achieve new levels of artistry and performance beyond what is possible in their regular class work. To train and empower students to a pre-professional level with a competitive edge who may consider dance as a major or minor in college. To make possible a young dancer's dream to pursue a career in theatre, dance performance, or as a dance educator.

Values

- Integrity - To conduct oneself with integrity through honesty, courtesy, respect, and consideration for your fellow dance members and faculty. This includes a willingness to be held accountable for the manner in which you participate in all company activities.
- Leadership - To be given the privilege of setting an example, serving the people you are leading, and being an inspiration to others in the CDPAC community.
- Responsibility - To adhere to the policies and procedures of the studio and company, to comply with the schedule and requests of the faculty, and to be a person that others can count on.
- Professionalism - To respect the dance profession and uphold our values and standards of conduct in a way that characterizes the highest qualities of dance professionals. This includes respecting your teachers, supporting and encouraging each other, to not gossip, but be able to voice opinion to a company director about your concern, and to recognize yourself as a role model at all times.
- Character - To be a person who represents personal integrity, leadership, responsibility and professionalism in classes, outside activities and events, and in all interactions with peers and authority figures.
